

This whole-year course will cover the main topics necessary to succeed in various citywide HS contests. Any interested student can register for this class, but eligibility for the NYMC Math Team may be restricted to students from schools without a math team, depending on contest rules.